STORM BLIZZARD OF YEARS HITS THE ENTIRE NORTH

STOPS TRAFFIC; STEAMER IN DANGER

INCHES OF SNOW FELL AT PALEO IN TWO HOURS—
NEW YORK AND OHIO ARE CLOSED.

(The Associated Press.)
Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 22.—The storm which in years is falling on the lake region, has hit at least 100 miles from the coast and is closing in on the city.
Reports from New York say the
city is in the grip of a blizzard.
The heavy snow still falling threatens
to stop all traffic.

Reports from New York say the
city is in the grip of a blizzard.
The heavy snow still falling threatens
to stop all traffic.

It isn't the biggest advertisement that gets the most business, but it is the advertisement that says something worth knowing about goods that are worth buying.

THOUSAND PEOPLE ATTEND DANCE AT CASINO BURGEOYNE

A large, merry crowd of at least 1,000 people attended the dance at the Casino Burgoyne last night. A number of these first went to the folk dances given by about 60 children from the public school. These artistic dances were presented in connection with a candy sale, the proceeds of which will be used to aid the cause of art in the schools.

Just as last Thursday, people came from all parts of the county to attend the regular dance. Several hundred dancers were on the floor at one time and as many if not more spectators were present.
No dance will be held next Thursday on account of the New Year's celebration which is to take place on New Year's night. Tickets to this dance will cost 50c, thus giving the dancers a chance to contribute to the music and from which Tucker's orchestra is paid.

YACHT EAST WIND LEAVES FOR MIAMI AND SOUTH

The yacht, East Wind, owned by H.
Appley, of Elizabeth, N. J., which was recently rebuilt by Chas. McDonald and son, left Friday for southern waters. This boat is 50x13 and has been in storage at the McDonald yard for the summer. Mr. Appley and a party of friends are accompanying the boat south.

The yacht, Gallivant, owned by Joseph Brakeley, of Freehold, N. J., who is proprietor of a large canning factory, will be in storage at the Mc-Donald yard for the next two months.
Mr. Brakeley will come at the end of that time for a cruise down the east coast.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK

(The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Dec. 22.—The German submarine U-45, which recently operated off St. Nazaire, has been sunk by destroyers, according to a Nantes dispatch.

MASONIC HOME BURNS; FIVE PERSONS PERISH AND SEVERAL INJURED

(The Associated Press.)
WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 22.—At least five persons are believed to have perished as the result of a fire which destroyed the main building of the Masonic home here early today. Several were injured. Two bodies have thus far been recovered. The loss is estimated at $250,000.

HEAVY RAINFALL IN THE PAST FEW DAYS

Through the failure of the delivery of the weather report in time for publication yesterday afternoon, the local rainfall was also omitted, as it is being published now in connection with the general report. J. G. Brown who furnishes the report on the rainfall, gave the precipitation for Wednesday night at 1.45 inches, which was followed last night by .16 of an inch.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS ARE TO ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Ten local public school teachers will leave next Tuesday for Arcadia to attend the annual state teachers' convention which takes place in that city on December 27, 28 and 29. Several are going from the Seabreeze and Kingston schools and this vicinity will have a very good representation.
There are very good prospects of having this convention to meet in Daytona next year. This question will be decided at the Arcadia meeting.

FRANCE RECEIVES THE AMERICAN SUGGESTION

PARIS, Dec. 22.—American Ambasador Sharp delivered the American note to Premier Briand last night. Paris newspapers today printed the text of the note.

British Pushing Forward; Still Attacking Turks and Well Toward Palestine

(The Associated Press.)
Considerable military activity is developing in sections far enough south to prevent the winter weather hindering operations, according to today's reports.

The British have pushed forward close to Kut-El-Amara from the south and are attacking the Turks. They evidently hope to resume the long delayed march to Bagdad.

The Egyptian operations are also demanding attention again. The British are evidently intending a defensive zone about the Suez canal. The taking of El Arish brings them well toward the Palestine border and further east than at any time since the Turkish raids began.

Artillery activity on the Franco-Belgian front and in Macedonia is reported.

England Not Ready to Reply to Wilson, Andrew Bonar Law Tells the House of Commons

ANDREW BONAR LAW

(The Associated Press.)

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The British government will not make any statement at present regarding President Wilson's note to belligerents inquiring as to the probable terms of peace the various countries involved would consider, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, told the house of commons today.

He stated that the British government considered the question one of considerable importance and one that should be dealt with simultaneously with the entente allies.

It is semi-officially announced here today that Germany will make known her chief peace terms immediately if the entente reply to the proposals of the central powers leaves the door open for negotiations, said a news agency dispatch from The Hague.

WRECKER OF CARNEGIE TRUST CO. PARDONED

(The Associated Press.)
COMSTOCK, N. Y., Dec. 22.— William J. Cummins, the convicted wrecker of the Carnegie Trust company of New York, has been freed. His pardon reaches here this morning.

U. S. TO BECOME CLEARING HOUSE FOR PEACE VIEWS

BRITISH CAPTURE EL ARISH

(The Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 22.—The British yesterday captured El Arish, 90 miles east of the Suez canal.

MRS. C. G. BURGEOYNE PRESENTS PICTURES TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

THREE BEAUTIFUL PICTURES SE-LECTED FROM ELSON ART EX-HIBIT BY TEACHERS OF DAY-TONA PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Late yesterday afternoon F. N. Conrad, at the request of Mrs. C. G. Burgoyne, visited the Casino Burgoyne and secured the assistance of some of the teachers of the Daytona public schools, who were assisting at the El-son art exhibit, for the selection of three pictures from the exhibit to be hung in the school buildings. It was the desire of Mrs. Burgoyne that the selection be made by teachers of the schools and they have made a choice of three beautiful pictures that should prove popular with all interested.

The three pictures selected are in sepia, are 30x54 inches, and include "The Boyhood of Raleigh," original by Sir John Millais; "The Coming of the White Man," by Reid, and "Landscape, With Windmill," by Jacob van Ruyssdael.

The gift to the schools by Mrs. Burgoyne of these beautiful pictures will be deeply appreciated by the faculty and pupils and her generous gift may stimulate others to make donations of pictures from the exhibit, a nucleus which may in time expand into an art gallery that will be a continual pleasure and source of up-lift and instruction to the children in the schools.

THREE CASES BEFORE POLICE JUDGE TITUS

Wm. E. Bence and Oscar C. Robinson were fined $2 this morning in police court for riding on the sidewalk.
Joe Mims, colored, was fined $2 also,
for failing to pick up garbage which fell to the street from his wagon.

OTHER NEUTRALS MAY JOIN IN SUGGESTION

DIPLOMATS EAGERLY WATCHING FOR INDICATIONS WHETHER
OTHER NATIONS FOLLOW LEAD OF AMERICA.

(The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Diplomats in Washington are eagerly watching for indications whether European neutrals will follow the lead of the United States and appeal to belligerents to make known the objects for which they are fighting. The Spanish and Swiss representatives have been to the state department frequently since the proposals were made known.

The feeling strongly prevails in diplomatic circles that the United States hopes to become the clearing house for views and possibly the terms for the belligerents. Several diplomats have advised their governments to this effect, in order to guide them in replying.

Charge Grew of the American embassy at Berlin cabled that the American note had been received in the German capital.

ROAD TO AUGUSTINE IMPASSABLE; TO BE REPAIRED TOMORROW

ST. AUGUSTINE, Dec. 22.—Many bridges in this section were washed out as a result of the torrential rains of yesterday and many automobile parties bound south are stranded here.

A number of bridges on the brick road near Hastings are gone. The board of county commissioners is in special session today. Every convict and as much free labor as available has been put to work in night and day shifts and it is hoped to have the road open tomorrow. Just what damage has been done in the south end of the county is not yet known.

VERY HEAVY RAINFALL IN THE ANCIENT CITY

Mrs. L. A. Stout and son, Eugene Jones, who arrived yesterday for the season, motored down from Jacksonville in a new Cadillac "8", specially geared, which Mr. Jones had shipped to Jacksonville from Asheville, N. C., where he had been during the summer months. Mrs. Stout, who had been for a time with her son in Asheville, had returned to New York and came south from that city, joining Mr. Jones in Jacksonville. They were delayed in St. Augustine by the heavy rainfall and were guests Wednesday night at the Alcazar. Mr. Jones says there was three inches of water on the streets of St. Augustine Wednesday evening as a result of the very heavy precipitation.

M. KALB OPENS STORE IN ARCADE BUILDING

The New York ready-to-wear store, which has recently been opened in one of the stores in the Arcade building, is under the management of M.
Kalb, of Newark, N. J., and New York, who has previously engaged in business in Daytona, but not in several past years. Mrs. J. Ginsberg of this city is a daughter of Mr. Kalb.

Henry H. Morgan, United States consul general at Hamburg, Germany, declares that Germany will be ready for any trade war her enemies may wage against her after the end of hostilities in the field. "The empire expects to do a big business with America," he says, "despite feelings which may have been engendered by the war."

Daily Thought.
The best independence is to have something to do, and something that can be done, and done most perfectly in solitude.—Hamerton.

Don't Worry!

Health is oftener undermined by worry than by work. Lincoln wisely said that no man ever sank under the burden of the day. It is only when the burden of tomorrow is added, that the load becomes greater than a man can carry. Remember, then, to bear your burden a day at a time and don't worry.

Both Prodigals.

A young wife remonstrated with her husband, a dissipated spend-thrift, on his conduct. "Love," said he, "I am like the prodigal son; I shall reform by and by." "I will be like the prodigal son, too," she replied, "for I shall arise and go to my father."

*****
FACTS ABOUT BUSHMAN-BAYNE "ROMEO AND JU-LIET" AT NEW DAYTONA
*****

The stars are Francis X. Bushman, as "Romeo," and Beverly Bayne, as "Juliet."

The cost of production was $250,000.

The first picture was taken May 25, 1916; the last, August 23, 1916—thirteen weeks to a day.

The cost of the costumes alone amounted to $35,000.

John W. Noble was general director; associated with him were Edward Elsner, assistant director; Rudolph de Cordova, Shakespearean advisor; Edward Powers, casting and costume director; Leander de Cordova, financial and assistant director; Harry Sothorn costume and assistant director.

A scenario made from William Shakespeare's greatest drama, "Romeo and Juliet," was submitted by John Arthur and accepted; Rudolph de Cordova modified and augmented this,
and John W. Noble made the final changes.

All the leading characters of the play really spoke Shakespeare's lines while going through the appropriate action. Whenever a player forgot a speech the camera was stopped, and he was obliged to begin over again.

Several of the greatest theatrical families of America and England are represented in the cast, which includes a Booth, a Sothorn, a Mintell, a Kemble and a Hall Caine.

Six hundred players were employed in the production of "Romeo and Juliet."

Eighteen buildings, reproducing the old market-place of mediæval Verona, were built for the production. A great storm destroyed these just as pictures were about to be taken and they had to be entirely rebuilt at a total of more than $25,000.

"Romeo and Juliet" is the attraction at the New Daytona theatre Thursday and Friday.

"THE VICTORY OF CONSCIENCE"

AT THE CRYSTAL THEATRE

Lou Tellegen, the distinguished romantic actor, has never had a more thrilling role in his entire stage and screen career than that of the young count who passes from saint to sinner in "The Victory of Conscience," an unusual Lasky photoplay written especially for Mr. Tellegen by Margaret Turnbull.

Lou Tellegen has the distinction of being one of the champion swordsmen of Europe and Elliott Dexter, who appears with him in this production is also well known for his prowess with the foils. Together they enact one of the most thrilling duel scenes ever witnessed on the screen.

The story has to do with the spiritual and mental re-awakening of Louis, Count de Tavanne. The count and his handsome adventurous companion, Prince Dimitri, steal a little dancer girl from a French tavern. The girl falls in love with Louis but he casts her aside and is nearly killed in a fight with a former sweetheart of the girl. Upon recovering, the former sinner enters the priesthood. He again meets the dancer and through his ennobling influence she is induced to enter a monastery. Cleo Ridgely appears in the role of the dancer and renders a most appealing interpretation of the character.

"The Victory of Conscience" will be shown at the Crystal theatre Saturday.

"THE GATES OF EDEN"

NEW DAYTONA THEATRE

"The Gates of Eden," Viola Dana's newest starring vehicle is admirably suited to the quaint charm of this wonderfully gifted little artist and gives here the most complete scope for a wide range of emotions. This is an opportunity welcomed by Miss Dana, and her work will prove a delight and revelation even to her most ardent admirers.

"The Gates of Eden," which was picture for the Metro program by the Columbia Pictures' corporation is from the pen of a clergyman, Rev. William E. Danforth, and was submitted as a play. It was adapted for the screen by John H. Collins, who also directed it, and who has directed all Miss Dana's productions for Metro.

The life of a Shaker community is shown in "The Gates of Eden," and contrasted with its perfect simplicity are homes of wealth and distinction in the city. The manners and customs of the Shakers have been faithfully portrayed and the picture is to some extent educational as well as highly entertaining. Moreover, the religious beliefs of the Shakers form the very backbone of the plot and provide the unusual complications that go to make up this supremely fascinating story.

The Shakers do not believe in marriage or in the perpetuation of the race. Their idea is that men and women should live together as brothers and sisters, never as husband and wife. The hardship that such a belief breaks on loving young hearts can well be imagined.

In "The Gates of Eden" the full force of the Shaker creed falls upon the young people of three generations.
When Joseph Case's young wife dies, he takes his tiny daughter Evelyn and seeks consolation and peace in Eden, a Shaker settlement. The community is bringing up a founding William Bard, and as he and Evelyn grow up they fall in love with each other. Their love is frowned upon by the Shakers and they are forbidden to marry. William is flogged and driven from the community, and Evelyn is severely treated by Elder Joseph, who has put aside the natural love of a father for a daughter since becoming head of the community. Evelyn does not long after her child is born, and when Bard returns Joseph tells him that not only the mother, but the child also is dead. Bard curses the inhuman system that has caused the death of the woman he loves and he goes back to the city, vowing that he will yet live to flog every Shaker from the gates of Eden as he himself has been flogged. He is unconscious of the existence of his winsome daughter Eve, but fate wills that she shall meet Rodney, the boy her father has adopted and that they shall fall in love.
Bard does live to wreak vengeance on the Shakers in one of the most dramatic scenes ever portrayed, but love and mercy reign at the story's close and the lovers are brought together in happy wedlock.

A distinguished cast, including Edward Earle, Robert Walker, and Au-

Realized It Would Be Close.

The moment the razor touched his face, the man in the chair realized that he was in the hands of an amateur.
"Will you have a close shave, sir?"

returned the victim, moodily. "At present the odds against my getting out of this chair alive seem very heavy,

Saturday Holiday.

The beginnings of the Saturday half-holiday might be traced to an old-time custom among southern planters. "On Saturdays," says Professor Sanford in "The Story of Agriculture," "for either the whole or a part of the day, the slaves were released from field work."

In many cases they used this time and Sundays in which to earn money for themselves by hiring out and doing odd jobs. There were many instances in which slaves purchased their freedom and that of their families with money earned in this way.

Filial Affection.

At a wine party of young men at one of the colleges, notes of apology were handed in from two of the proposed guests, who were unable to attend owing to the death of their father. A young gentleman, heir to a considerable property, who had been partaking freely of the hospitalities of the festive board, suddenly burst into tears.
"Was this dear old gentleman a friend of yours?" asked the sympathetic host.
"No, no, it's not that," sobbed the guest; "only—I was just thinking—everybody's father dies but mine."

NEWSBOYS OF THE DAILY NEWS VISIT KENNEDY SHOWS

The boys who handle the Daytona Daily News were given the treat of their young lives last night as the guests of Con T. Kennedy. Starting in at the motordrome they took in the varied attractions presented by the Con T. Kennedy shows and enjoyed every minute and all of the seconds of the time. At the motordrome they stood spellbound to see a motorcyclist ride on a perpendicular wall and when the little lady with the aggregation rode six inches within the top they held their breath until she had completed her act, when they broke out in applause which spread to the vast audience. The boys next saw Miss Essie Fay in the Society horse show. They approved of the horse with the "human brain" and went away greatly pleased with Miss Fay and her horses. Then the boys took the shows in turn and marveled at the many features which comprise the Kennedy shows. Mr. Kennedy started out as a newsboy and he likes to see hustling youngsters enjoy themselves.

The Kennedy shows give their final entertainment tonight. They will start early and stay late so that all may have an opportunity to take in the various attractions. From Daytona they go to Key West where they open Christmas day.

Ukrainians.

The Ukraine, once the first republic in eastern Europe, has been divided between her neighbors. Russia holds its largest part, with some 28,000,000 Ukrainians; the Russian nationalists call that country Malorossia or Little Russia, and the people Little Russians.
Austria-Hungary holds a much smaller number, 3,500,000 in eastern Galicia, 400,000 in Bukovina and 500,000 in sub-Carpathian districts of Hungary.

NUTS AND RAISINS.

THE old idea was that nuts were indigestible. That is because folk of grandmother's day usually ate nuts after they had already dined too lavishly and had worn out their appetites on six or seven heavy dishes first. Truly, nuts are as substantial as meat, richer in fats, and one might as well expect to eat sirloin steak as a deadly tidbit after a six course dinner as a fair serving of nuts.

But nowadays heavy dining has rather gone out of fashion. The fact that nobody loves a fat man and that the too fat woman is hopelessly out of fashion seems to have penetrated most folks' brains, and most folks know that the surest way to keep from getting fat is to dine moderately, to avoid many courses and to take but one really heavy dish in each meal.

In no place in the world probably are walnuts so highly prized as in England, and this in spite of the fact that the very name wal-nut is derived from some sort of root that school men tell us meant foreign nut. The nut of nuts, the nut they thought of when they used the single word nut, used to be the filbert some hundred years ago before the walnut had been introduced from Italy, and for some time it was as often called the Italian nut or Jupiter nut as it was walnut.

The filbert, which is really just a highly cultivated hazelnut, is still regarded by many an epicure as quite the finest of all nuts in flavor.

The almond also has its admirers, but it must be remembered that the almond is rather indigestible even when not taken on a heavy dinner. It is really not the almond itself that causes the trouble, but the skin around it, and for this reason the almond should always be blanched by allowing it to remain a minute or so in boiling water and then removing the outer skin. For this reason when almonds are served plain they are best served blanched and slightly salted. Almonds that have been blanched and sugared are delicious as a luncheon sweet.

Often a course of nuts and raisins served after a good consomme makes a delightful luncheon. And remember that nuts are always most attractive when served in the shell, with the exception of the almond, whose tough skin makes this inadvisable. They should be heaped up in an attractive dish or bowl and garnished with fresh green leaves, preferably those of the nuts themselves. As this is usually impossible, any other leaves will do.

Anna Thompson.

THE WEATHER

FOR FLORIDA: Fair, colder tonight, cold wave northeast portion; temperatures below freezing north portion; frost, probably heavy, central portion. Saturday fair, colder south portion.

The southern disturbance moved rapidly northward and is central this morning near the coast of New Jersey, resulting in gales on the middle Atlantic coast. Rain was general east of the Mississippi river, changing to snow in the Ohio valley and portions of the east lake region. Exceptionally heavy rains occurred over northeastern Florida.

An area of high pressure and cold weather has pushed southward to the lower Mississippi valley, the line of freezing temperature touching the middle gulf coast, and temperatures at 25 degrees and below prevailing southward to northern Louisiana and central Texas, where temperatures are 25 degrees to 20 degrees below the seasonal average. Under the influence of falling pressure the weather is warmer over the plains and Rocky Mountain states. The winds are northerly on the gulf coast and westerly on the south Atlantic coast—generally moderate.

PICTURES PRESENTED TO THE LOCAL SCHOOL
Mayor C. M. Bingham and Michael Boltz were the donors of two beautiful pictures from the Elson Art exhibit at the Casino Burgoyne, to the public schools of Daytona. Mayor Bingham selected a beautiful photograph in sepia, of Derwent Water, a beautiful English lake in Cumberland county, north England. Mr. Boltz's selection was a reproduction of the famous 1794 portrait of George Washington. It is hoped that many other citizens or visitors will follow these and other donors by giving a picture to the school.
On each picture the name of the donor is inscribed on a small brass plate.

Birds in Migration.
Few birds put themselves to high speed during the migration fight.
They go such moderate distances as 30, 30, 40 miles a day, making many side excursions for food which increase the actual space traversed. But some species make long continued and rapid flights. Some make the trip across the Gulf of Mexico, varying in distance, according to the route, from 500 to 700 miles, in a single trip.
The purple martin is said to average 120 miles every night in its spring trip from Texas to Winnipeg.

But whether they travel fast or slow many birds cover thousands of miles in each migration, north or south. The brilliant scarlet tanager spends half the year in the United States and Canada, and the other half in Peru.

SEABREEZE

A number of young people of Daytona Beach attended the folk dances and regular public dances at the Casino tonight, Daytona, last night.

The many friends of Mrs. H. T. M. Johnson will regret to hear of her passing at the Truett home on Ocean avenue and the river front. All hope for her rapid recovery.

Mrs. Osborn Herndon returned to her home in Sanford, Thursday afternoon after spending the past few days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Mahoy, on Palmetto street.

Miss Mary E. Wilford of Atlantic City, N. Y., arrived here Thursday to spend a several weeks' stay at a local home. Miss Wilford spent last season at a Seabreeze boarding house and has a number of friends here.

John O'Neill of DeLand, was a recent visitor to the beach, coming over Tuesday night in his auto from the county seat with a number of friends. Mr. O'Neill and party returned to their homes late in the evening.

Miss Helen Freeman, of New Jersey, who has been attending Stetson university, came over from DeLand by way of New Smyrna Thursday afternoon and will visit friends at the beach during the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nickle, well known winter visitors to the beach, will arrive about January 2, from Melrose, Ill., to spend another winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wilson on Seabreeze avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Nickle have enjoyed several past winters here and have many friends.

Miss Eileen Eech came over from Stetson university at DeLand Wednesday to spend the holiday vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Eech, at their home on Peninsula drive. Winthrop Eech arrived Thursday from Purdue university, where he has been attending school, to also visit his parents. They will return to their schools shortly after the first of the year.

Mrs. Sallie Lockhart and daughter Mildred, of Wellington, Ill., accompanied by Samuel Miller, will arrive Friday or Saturday to spend the winter on Halifax avenue.

Mrs. Sallie Johnson Burgin came in Friday afternoon to spend another winter season, at the beach. Last season, Mrs. Burgin and Mrs. Embry conducted the hotel Kentucky-Neptune on the corner of Ocean avenue and Earl street, Seabreeze. Mrs. Burgin is undecided as yet where she will be located. Mrs. Embry will arrive in a few days and has like Mrs. Burgin, been spending the summer at her home in Lexington, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Wheeler and daughter, of Crown Point, Ind., arrived Friday afternoon to enjoy a winter at the beach.

Miss Dorothy Manchester arrived Thursday afternoon to spend the holidays with her parents on Palmetto street.

Mrs. A. B. Lapham, of Columbus, O., is expected this week to visit for the holidays with his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gents at her cozy and attractive home on Halifax avenue north.

Carl Sholtz is expected to arrive Saturday from Yale university, New Haven, Conn., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sholtz and family at their cozy bungalow home on ocean front and Atlantic avenue.

Workmen in the employ of the Daytona Public Service company, were engaged yesterday in distributing poles along Atlantic avenue and Ocean avenue above Earl street. These poles will take the place of old poles now in the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whittset, of Eustis, accompanied by their sons, Walter and Ernest, will arrive tomorrow for the holidays and will stay at their cottage on Ocean avenue. They will visit part of the time with relatives in Daytona.

J. K. List left Friday afternoon for his home in Winter Park after spending a week at his Seabreeze home on Atlantic avenue, in superintending repairs which have just been completed on the second floor. Mr. List will probably return to the beach with his wife and friends at the end of the next week.

Rapid Growers.
Banana plantations will yield a continuous harvest for years without replanting. Nearly 200 hills, having 900 stalks, are allowed to the acre, yielding some 300 marketable bunches per year, the average profit per acre being near $50 annually.

Flight of Bullet.
The most amazing sight in our experience, says a writer in Popular Mechanics, was the United States service bullet with its speed of 2,700 feet a second. Here we saw the bullet itself, not flying particles. The sun was low over the eastern hills. Its rays came through a break in the ridge bordering the range, lighting up most of the course of the bullet up to the target 200 yards away, but leaving the target and the firing point in deep shadow. The first bullet was seen by someone, and not a man present missed the strange sight later on. The appearance was a very brilliant silvery flash, as vivid and quick as a flash of lightning. But two things are necessary to see bullets fly, a dark background and the sun at right angles to its course. Big gun projectiles are, of course, nearly always visible, and it is not hard to see a charge of shot in flight if one knows what to look for and where to stand.

FLAG PRESENTED TO RECORD GRADE AT SEABREEZE SCHOOL

Frank W. Smith was present at the morning exercises of the Seabreeze-Daytona Beach public school this morning and presented a beautiful United States flag to the pupils of the first grade for their excellent record of attendance and being fourth in punctuality. They will have the honor of keeping the flag for a month when it will again be awarded to the grade leading in these two things. The high school room came second, leading in punctuality.

The exercises closed with the singing of "America" by the whole school after which the various rooms passed from the assembly hall to their various class rooms.

A class debate was held by the sophomore class during the first hour of the morning on the question, "Resolved That Inter-High School Athletics Should Be Abolished."

A number of the alumna of Seabreeze-Daytona Beach high school attended school during the morning today and took great interest in visiting the various classes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. and R. V. Dimars, of Franklin, Ind., are expected to arrive today and spend the remainder of the winter with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Van Nuy at the Comfort Lodge, Ocean avenue.

United States' Coal Areas.
The known coal areas of the United States cover about 310,000 square miles, and there are about 100,000 square miles more that are believed to be underlaid with marketable coal.

Rebuffed.
In the early morning the fresh city boarder met the rustic dairymaid carrying a couple of foaming milk pails. "Ah, good morning, my dear," he said, patronizingly. "How is the milkmaid?" "Tain't made at all, kind sir," she said. "We take it from the cows."

1,000-Foot Tub of Stone.
The Big Bend country in Texas bordering on the Rio Grande, famous in frontier history as the rendezvous of scores of "bad men," has been mapped by the United States Geological Survey. The survey has made known some striking topographic features. About 10 miles northwest of Terlingua is a circular area seven miles in diameter called Solitario. It is formed of huge, curved strata of lime rock standing nearly on edge and slanting inward like the staves of an inverted tub.

6 REPORTED KILLED IN SEABOARD WRECK

(The Associated Press.)

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 22.—Six men are believed to have been killed when a double-header freight on the Seaboard Air Line ran into a washout at McKinley, Fla., this morning. Engineers E. M. Lee and C. M. Coxwell, Conductor C. R. Payne and three negro trainmen were killed. All live here. The train was running from Tallahassee to Jacksonville. Eighteen cars left the track.

Sounds of Nature.
The inhabitants of a frog pond close at hand awakened two little girls who were spending the first night in the country. First came the high, piping voice of a little "peener." "What's that?" whispered Winnie. "I think it's a bird," ventured Susan. Just then a basso profundo frog sung one of his lowest notes. "What's that?" came another startled whisper. "I ain't quite sure," came the answer. "But I think it is either a cow or an automobile."

Old Trinity House.
Trinity House, which celebrated its 400th anniversary a few days ago, is famed across the Seven Seas. The first general lighthouse and pilotage authority in the United Kingdom, it has played an important part in nautical affairs throughout the period during which Britain has been the mistress of the oceans. The organization, an association of master mariners, was an important institution at the time, in 1514, when it was granted its first charter by Henry VIII, the anniversary of which event has recently been observed.

Danish and Swedish Flags.
The flags of all the three Scandinavian kingdoms are somewhat similar in design. Of the Danish flag the legend runs that King Waldemar of Denmark, leading his troops to battle in 1219, saw at a critical moment a cross in the sky. This was at once taken as an answer to his prayers and an assurance of celestial aid. It was forthwith adopted as the Danish flag and called the "Danebrog," that is, the strength of Denmark. Apart from all legend this flag undoubtedly dates from the thirteenth century, and is therefore the oldest now in existence. It consists of a white cross on a red ground, the naval flag being swallow-tailed, and the mercantile marine flag rectangular. The Swedish flag is a yellow cross on a blue ground. When flown from a man-of-war it is forked as in the Danish, but the longer arm of the cross is not cut off but pointed, making a three-pointed flag. For the mercantile marine the flag is rectangular.

Sensitizing Blue-Print Paper.
In an attempt to engineer around the difficulty encountered in moist climates where special care must be taken in storing quantities of unexposed blue-print paper, a simple apparatus has been built which allows an individual user to sensitize paper as it is needed. In operating it, a roll of blank paper is fed into the machine from a point near the base. As this is drawn upward it is passed over a coating cylinder which is supplied with a chemical solution. After the paper is treated, it is passed across a roller in an electrically heated drying oven and is then wound. The paper is 42 inches in width and may be used within an hour after the sensitizing operation. The machine has an output varying from 150 to 200 yards an hour.—Popular Mechanics.

Coal Mining in 1842.
Maryland and the adjoining counties in West Virginia which make up what is known as the Cumberland region constitute the only districts outside of the anthracite region of Pennsylvania whose records of coal production have been kept from the earliest years. Those districts have been commonly known as the Georges Creek (or Cumberland) and the Piedmont regions. The Cumberland region was opened in 1842, and the Piedmont region began shipping in 1853.

This Turkish Fashion For Evening Wear

MANY women are afraid to attempt fashioning a gown of striped material, for they know that stripes must be handled with understanding and skill. But when the results are as gratifying as they are, the evening frock it is well worth the attempt. Here the striped material comes in a glorious shade of black striped in black satin—has been used for the skirt. The material has been filled in, as they say in dressmaker's parlance, at the waist line and flared out in typical Turkish fashion at the bottom, where it is held by a band of monkey skin, the last word in fashion with the Parisiennes. The bodice is a tight fitting little basque, an idea the designers have borrowed from the humble peasant costume and glorified sufficiently to be added to the up to the minute evening gown. Of sleeves there is not a vestige, but when there is a pretty arm the omission is far more desirable than the commission.

For the bride nothing could be more attractive for an expensive gift than a set of dessert glasses of the sort frappe is served in—tall, slender, lily shaped things of cut glass or engraved crystal in silver holders. There are silver plates to put them on and long handled silver spoons to pass with them.

ANNA MAY.

Philanthropic Day at Palmetto Club

The second meeting of the Palmetto club was held Thursday afternoon. The ladies of the Philanthropic department were in charge. It has been a custom of the club to give over the day preceding Christmas each year for the annual Christmas shower for the benefit of the colored kindergarten schools. Baskets for the reception of gifts of toys, money, etc., were conveniently placed near the entrance and were in charge of Mrs. Thos. F. Gordie. The hostesses of the day were Mrs. Geo. Carey and Mrs. Jno. B. Uebelhor. The club house was beautifully decorated with Christmas trees, holly and greens.

The meeting was opened by the gracious president, Mrs. N. C. Sears, who called attention to the announcement of a card party to be given by the Social committee at the club house Friday afternoon, December 29th, at the Despland hotel the evening of 8:30. The ladies were invited to attend a banquet to be held at January 11th at 6:30. All were urged to make their reservations as soon as convenient, thus helping the Social committee. Attention was called to a meeting of the Music department December 29th, at 10 o'clock. The subject for the morning will be "The Origin and Use of the Early English Christmas Carols," in comparison with American Christmas music, Mrs. Celeste Hinks as leader.

After these announcements the president introduced Mrs. Henry Mitchell chairman of the Philanthropic department who had charge of the day. Mrs. Mitchell in her usual happy way announced the appearance of the little colored children, from the two kindergarten schools, who marched up the main aisle and onto the stage, singing a Merry Christmas song. The program by these children was a good one, consisting of songs pantomime and a number of speeches by bright little girls and boys. It concluded by their marching out as they had come in. Their department and voices were remarkable considering ages and opportunity. It was inspiring to watch them, each face aglow with eager ambition to do credit to their teachers and meet the approval of their white friends, who were instrumental in establishing these schools where, instead of learning the alphabet of vice, they are taught the rudiments of good that will influence their after lives.

ADD—PALMETTO club . . . . . JK
Mrs. Mitchell then told of the progress made in the schools, the Midway school numbering 61 pupils, and Waycross 50. She also said that the philanthropic department was the oldest department of the club and was organized 21 years ago by Mrs. Lawrence Thompson. She also paid tribute to Mrs. Wm. Ruger who has done so much for the department and was unable to be present on account of illness, but whose daughter, Mrs. F. J. Longdon, was wearing her mother's mantle in her absence. Mrs. Mitchell was gratified to find during her visit to the biennial in New York this past summer that the work of the philanthropic department among the colored people here was receiving unstinted praise and that while all of the club members were not interested, the general federation as a whole think it a real work, deserving much commendation, and that it is raising the standard of citizenship and morals. Thanking the audience for the shower, Mrs. Mitchell then introduced, in her usual lovely way, Mrs. G. E. Hines, who sang, "Your Voice," by Danza, accompanied by Mrs. A. N. Otis. Miss Lee Bowers, youngest delegate to the State Federation, which met last month in Miami, then took her hearers with her to that wonderful convention. Her descriptions were word pictures and the minutest details did not escape her observing eyes. All went with her, in spirit, from beautiful Daytona to Miami, to the headquarters at Holcyon hall, to see the Miami Women's club home, and best of all, to the Royal Palm State park. In dedicating the park Mrs. W. S. Jennings said: "With the power invested in me as president of the Florida Federation of Women's clubs, I hereby dedicate this Royal Palm park, to the people of Florida and their children forever."

Thus was one of the choicest bits of tropical scenery in the state conserved for its highest possible purpose.

Mrs. A. Milligan then gave an account of the business sessions of the convention. There have been 33 new clubs organized during the year, with a membership of 771. Mrs. T. V. Moore, in speaking of club extension, used Mrs. Jennings' slogan: "A club for every community, a club house for every club, and 10,000 members for the 1917 convention." As those present listened to this detailed report they could not help being impressed with the wonderful amount of work done by these noble women in helping make this state a better place in which to live.

"Way Down Upon the Suwannee River" was adopted as the State Federation song, as it is the most characteristic Florida song. Mrs. C. A. Randall sang very sweetly, "Holy Night," Mrs. Otis accompanist.

Mrs. Rolland E. Stevens gave her report of the evening sessions of the twenty-second convention of the Florida Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Stevens' report was replete with interesting data and she read it so impressively that everyone felt she knew whereof she spoke, and she had not failed to bring home the best the convention had to send out.

Mrs. Celeste Hinks then read, "Christmas Night in the Quarters." This was full of humor, which was enhanced by its excellent rendition by Mrs. Hinks.

The Philanthropic department added to its exchequer something over $55.

I called aloud in the forest, and the shout came back. Then I searched long, to find who answered me—but the sound had no source. I followed the will-o'-the-wisp through swamps at evening. It led me hither and yon, but I came nowhere. It was only the ghost of a light. I saw an apple hanging in the depths of a pool. I stooped to pick it, and layed my hands in the water. The apple had no form. This is dream life.—The Atlantic.

Remarkable Brazenness.

On his crossed heart young Patrick had denied old Patrick's accusation of wrongdoing. Old Patrick was unconvinced. "Don't I know ye?" he said. "Ye look innocent enough, ye young scallywag, but looks is deceivin'. Ye're that brazen that ye could stand there an' lie till ye was black in the face without ever changin' color!"

Third Man Needed.

Brewer was fond of quizzing his friend Johnson. So one day, while out walking together, he began his usual practice by remarking: "I say, Johnson, I believe if I had you tied to a piece of string and paraded you round the town, I should make money out of you." "Yes," remarked Johnson, "but you would have to have a man to shout at which end of the string the monkey was tied to."

Flora of the World.

A survey of the world's foods shows that one-half of the viands have a sweetish taste, one-third are salty and one-tenth sour or bitter.

Improved Coal Mixer.

Economy of fuel consumption in stoves often requires the mixing of two or more kinds of coal and an Englishman has invented a conical barge that mixes coal as it delivers it into a bunker.

THE schoolteacher at Rock Gulch dismissed her pupils with a smiling face. Behind the smiles lurked unshed tears. When the last youngster had vanished down the snow-covered trail, Bernice leaned her head against the window frame and the hot, rebellious tears flooded her soft gray eyes.

How she hated this far western country, with its crude ways, its dowdily dressed women, its unpolished men, and, above all, its loneliness! It was all so different from New England—and yet she fled from Massachusetts to hide a heartache.

"There is something wrong with me," she sighed at last. "It can't be the country or the people—they are kind and generous—it's the way I feel! How can I cure the ache and the homesickness for things that may never be?"

No answer came to her out of the swiftly falling winter twilight. Perhaps the knowledge that a wedding was taking place in Boston at that very hour confused her reasoning powers. The man had ceased to love her and she had offered him his freedom and he had accepted it, and so, being without near relatives, Bernice had found a position out here in Montana. This was her first Christmas in Rocky Gulch.

After awhile she locked the school-house door, and with the children's Christmas offerings in her lunch basket, the lonely little schoolma'am set off down the trail toward the Tucker place, where she boarded.

It was snowing hard now and the trail was rapidly disappearing under the white blanket. In the deepening gloom dark shapes appeared, approaching and receding, but they proved to be the pine trees fringing the steep slopes.

Far below, the lights of the town gleamed through the darkness and then vanished, and Bernice, plunging out of the path to avoid a deep drift, took a wrong turning and soon acknowledged to herself with a frightened sob that she was lost on the mountain in a raging blizzard.

Hours afterward, she sank exhausted at the foot of a pine tree and dropped her head on her outstretched arms.

"I will rest for a few minutes," she murmured drowsily.

Down in the town Mrs. Tucker waited supper that Christmas eve until nine o'clock. Then little Willie Tucker sleepily announced that Mrs. Halliday had invited teacher to spend the night and eat Christmas dinner at the Halliday ranch. Chiding Willie for his tardy information, Mrs. Tucker hastened to the telephone and called the Halliday ranch; but the wires were all down, and so the anxious little woman decided that the teacher had been unable to send word about her change of Christmas plans, and went about the trimming of the Tucker Christmas tree with renewed activity.

Bernice opened her eyes in the living room of a warm log cabin. Gay Navajo blankets hung from the walls and covered the broad couch on which she reclined before a blazing fire of hickory logs.

Two men were bending over the fire; one was stirring something in a bright tin saucepan, something hot and steaming which he poured into a tumbler and brought to her bedside.

"Hello!" he smiled. "Awake are you? Drink this mess and tell us how it all happened."

Bernice smiled back into a bronzed face that inspired instant confidence. He was young, with very blue eyes and very brown hair.

Bernice obediently drank the steaming mixture and snuggled down in the blankets and went to sleep.

"I wonder who she is, Jim," said the last comer.

"She came to us out of the storm—a little snowbird," murmured Jim Butler.

Billy Smith smiled shrewdly.

"Little Snowbird will be missed on Christmas eve," he said. "Some one is probably looking for her now, so don't set your heart on her, Jim."

Jim laughed softly.

"Oh, get out, you old idiot!" he grinned. "Can't a chap sentimentalize a bit on Christmas eve without your getting silly? I was thinking it will be a sorry Christmas for this little girl, and this blizzard looks good for all day tomorrow!"

"Sure thing—so I'm going out to cut a Christmas tree for her," said Billy struggling into his heavy coat.

"You're an angel," laughed Jim, getting out an ax.

He had never seen Bernice Avery before the moment when he had stumbled over her snow-covered form. He had carried her to the cabin three miles up the mountain and given Billy Smith the surprise of his adventurous life.

James Butler was a timber expert in the employ of the government and Billy was his right-hand man.

Suddenly the door opened and Billy staggered in, powdered with whiteness, carrying a small, symmetrical hemlock tree.

"Our Christmas tree for the kid," he said solemnly.

"Good," chuckled Jim, and they set to work.

It was Christmas morning when Bernice awoke again. Dimly she remembered the events of the night and when full realization came upon her she sat up in bed and looked around.

"Dear me, how horrid I feel!" she yawned sleepily, and at that instant she saw the Christmas tree and her eyes popped wide open.

The little tree stood on a table near the fire, propped with heavy stones. Strings of popcorn festooned it and there were puzzling tinsel ornaments—nuts covered with tinfoil. There were a Mexican quilt, a pair of gayly beaded Indian moccasins, a roll of Navajo blankets and some apples and oranges.

"I wonder whose Christmas tree this is," marveled Bernice.

The sun was streaming through the windows when Jim and Billy knocked at the door and entered in response to her call.

They had arrayed themselves in their best garments and they glanced expectantly from the girl's shyly smiling face to the gay little tree.

"Merry Christmas!" all three said in unison, and then laughed in gay friendliness.

"It looks so Christmasy in here," said Bernice. "I'm afraid I've stumbled upon somebody's Christmas tree."

Jim laughed. "Oh, that's your tree!"

"Mine?" she stammered.

"Yes—it was Billy's idea—your being away from home and everything. These are just trifles we had around the house. Please don't cry!" he protested as tears filled the lovely eyes of his guest.

"But you don't know how beautiful it is," she sobbed. "I was hating Christmas this year—I was so lonesome—and everything!"

She told them how she had disliked the West, not dreaming it could hold such kindness, and in return both men became very "gruff" indeed and Billy sternly insisted upon her coming out and eating her breakfast of cornbread, bacon and coffee. Jim said nothing, but his eyes were eloquent.

It was late afternoon when the storm ceased so that they could put on snowshoes and set out down the trail toward the Gulch, Bernice hugging her precious gifts close to her heart.

"It's the happiest Christmas I ever had," she told Jim, with eyes all ashine.

"And you don't hate the West and its people?" he smiled.

"No, indeed!"

"Then—perhaps—you will like it well enough to stay here always!" he blurted, and then in a panic of bashfulness he dashed away from the Tucker's front gate, leaving Billy sole witness to Bernice's blushes and tell-tale eyes.

"We'll have another Christmas tree next year—we three—and it won't be any accident either," predicted the guide shrewdly.

Billy's prophecy was fulfilled, and Bernice's happy Christmas was followed by many more in the country which she learned to love because Love had really sought and found her there.

We live in an age of mechanical farming; the "man with the hoe" is a has-been. The farmer of the future will be a machine expert.

Unnecessarily Alarmed.

Two Portland, Me., women, cleaning house, were startled to see a mouse leap out of an old trunk which they had just opened. After they had recovered their courage and investigated they found that the mouse was only an old toy moved by a spring which had been suddenly released when the trunk was opened.

WORK BEING DONE ON CITY LIGHTING SYSTEM

Workmen have been engaged during the last few days in painting the standards of the electric lights on the Burgoyne Esplanade a light green color. This work will be done hereafter, once a year by the Daytona Public Service company, under the new contract with the city. Poles are also being placed for the new incandescent system on many city streets, where the old arc lights will be removed.

Rain on the Diamonds.

Madge—Do you think Mr. Phan loves you more than he does baseball?
Maude—I really don't know. Last night he told me that my eyes were like diamonds.
Madge—That is a sign of affection.
Maude—Then a little later he said that when I cried it made him feel like a postponed game.—Judge

F. C. PFEIFFER ENLARGES BUSINESS THIS SEASON

F. C. Pfeiffer, who for a number of years has conducted a souvenir postcard stand during the season at some point on South Beach street, has this season secured the small store room recently erected between the Peck-Hendricks company and Curtis buildings, where, in addition to postcards, he will handle novelties and photographs. Mr. Pfeiffer styles his place "Pfeiffer's Biggest Little Store," and his number is 108 South Beach street.

Asbestos.

Most of us know little more of asbestos, the strange rock fiber that is almost as soft and pliable as cotton or woolen fabric, than that it is used in making fireproof theater curtains. In other ways it is fast coming into use as a "safety-first" building material. Not only does it protect against fire, says the Youth's Companion, but it is also a nonconductor of heat, and is therefore useful in preserving an even temperature. Most of what we use in this country comes from Canada, but Arizona is now beginning to produce asbestos of excellent quality.

BENNETT HOTEL WILL OPEN CHRISTMAS DAY

Albert Bennett came to Daytona yesterday afternoon from Jacksonville to make preparations for the opening on Christmas day of his hotel, the Bennett, on North Ridgewood avenue. Mr. Bennett was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. P. H. S. Cake, of Ocean City, N. J., and James Walsh and wife. Mr. Cake last winter assisted Mr. Bennett in the management of the hotel and made friends who will be pleased to note his return this season. Mr. Walsh will act as chef and Mrs. Walsh as pastry cook. Many improvements have been made in the Bennett hotel, including the addition of more baths and other modern conveniences and the house has been refitted and refurnished and is up-to-date in all respects.

Valuable Submerged Forest.

A submerged oak forest covering several square miles, from which logs more than 100 feet in length have been taken, was discovered by Russian engineers while dredging a river.
